

WESTERLY RENOMINATES ARNOLD

Unanimous Choice of Republicans for Senator at Wednesday Evening's Caucus—Interest of Pawcatuck Ballot Recount—Columbus Day Parade by Italian Societies.

The hearing before Judge Reed of the superior court, at New London, on Friday, relative to the license vote of the Rhode Island district, will be attended by several from Pawcatuck who have personal interest in the result, as well as by some who are interested in learning both sides of the case. Petition has been made for recount of the ballots in that district, the principal grounds being that the return made to the chief moderator was not in keeping with the actual count. As the moderator had no power to go behind the returns made to him he declared the vote to be in favor of license in the town of Stonington. Based on that official announcement, the liquor dealers have filed formal application for renewal of license and, under the law, if the returns are not changed by order of the court, they propose to continue business after the expiration of the license year, upon such application, pending the actual granting of license.

There is much talk in Pawcatuck of the alleged lax methods of the conduct of elections in the Rhode Island district, which may be aired at the hearing Friday.

Robert Robertson Marr and Miss Mary Isabel Miller were married Wednesday evening at the rectory of Christ Episcopal church, by Rev. William F. Williams. In the presence of members of both families, Miss Emily Miller, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Alexander Marr, brother of the groom, was best man. They left Westerly for New London on the steamboat train and went by boat from there to New York, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Miss Edith May Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Collins, of Wood River Junction, and Ralph Edward Taylor, of Charlton City, Mass., were married Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Clayton A. Burdick officiating. Before the marriage ceremony, Miss Katherine Price of Westerly sang Promise Me, and Miss Mary Buffum played on the piano the wedding march from Lehengrin.

Miss Dorothy Taylor of Westerly was bridesmaid and the little flower bearers were nieces of the bride, Elizabeth Maxson of Westerly and Helen Kenyon of Wood River Junction. A brother of the groom, Clair Taylor of Worcester, was best man. The ushers were Nathaniel Collins of Wood River Junction and Roger Taylor of Worcester. Guests were present from Worcester and Quinapoxet, Mass., and Providence, East Greenwich, Hop Valley, Ashaway, Stonington, and Westerly.

The annual session of the Rhode Island Institute for the Deaf and Dumb will be held in Infantry hall, Providence, November 3 and 4. At the opening session, Rev. Frank H. Decker, formerly of Westerly, will make the invocation. William H. Holmes, superintendent of schools in Westerly, is president of the institute, and will preside and make the opening address. Silas T. Nye, principal of the Elm street school, of Westerly, is president of the grammar school section, and will speak on Medical Inspection of School Children as Regards Mental Deficiency. At the evening session, there will be musical selections by Mrs. Annie Louise David, harpist, of New York; Raymond Clark, soprano soloist of All Angels' church, New York City, and, organist and superintendent of music schools.

The republican caucus for the nomination of a senator from Westerly to the Rhode Island general assembly, was held in the town hall, Wednesday evening. As it was understood that there would be no opposition to the renomination of Senator Louis W. Arnold, there was not a large attendance at the caucus. Mr. Arnold has served as representative and senator for several periods and for the past ten successive terms.

The caucus was called to order by William Clark, chairman of the town committee, and was organized by the election of Eugene B. Pendleton as chairman, and Arthur L. Perry as clerk, both nominations being made by Charles F. Perry.

William L. Clark nominated Louis W. Arnold for senator. The motion was seconded by James Jolly, who said that Mr. Arnold was prominently identified with the business interests of Westerly, and has done much for the town in the general assembly. Through his efforts Westerly is to have a new courthouse, and a long-felt want will be thus supplied.

Mr. Arnold was unanimously nominated for senator. He said he was highly gratified at the confidence of his fellow townsmen shown by unanimous renomination, and that it would be his earnest endeavor to do all he can for the best interests of the whole state and for Westerly.

He declared that the legislative delegation from Westerly can afford to be independent, for the reason that their election is not due to the support of any monied interest. No other town in the state stands better and cleaner than Westerly, for it has never been attacked by moneyed men, and the town to elect a senator or representative. He again thanked for the renomination and stated that he would endeavor to do so that the confidence of his friends would not be misplaced. The caucus then adjourned.

Local Laconics.

The second district caucus will be held Friday afternoon and evening, not Monday evening.

The electric wiring in the buildings of Westerly is being inspected as a safeguard of insurance.

St. Michael's cemetery is to be improved by the construction of a rustic wall with gate posts to match, and an ornamental iron gate at the main entrance.

The parade of Italian societies in honor of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, will start from Hibernian hall at half-past nine this (Thursday) morning.

Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Sidney A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewis of New London were in Westerly on Wednesday morning, en route to Providence by automobile.

A delegation from Deborah chapter, Westerly, attended the sixteenth annual convention of the grand chapter of Rhode Island Order Eastern Star, in Providence, Wednesday.

Rev. D. H. Davis of Shanghai, who has been a missionary in China for thirty years, will be in town for a year, will preach in the Seventh-day Baptist church, Sunday morning.

The Rhode Island road commission, who have been on tour of inspection of the highways of Massachusetts and Connecticut, passed through Westerly by automobile, Wednesday morning, on the return trip to Providence.

In observance of Columbus day there will be no sessions of St. Michael's parochial school. Over three hundred children are enrolled and among the few parochial schools in the state supplied with free textbooks.

Rev. Everett Tittsworth Tomlinson of Elizabeth, N. J., son of the late Rev. George Tomlinson, former pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church, made an earnest plea, at the Rhode Island Baptist convention, for the support of supernumerary clergymen.

Mrs. Deborah Klox, livingstone, president of the Rhode Island Order Christian union, who presided at the convention held in Westerly last week, was one of the speakers on the temperance question at the convention of Massachusetts Sunday schools, in New Bedford, Wednesday.

The funeral of John Caton was held Wednesday with a requiem mass in the church of the immaculate conception, celebrated by Rev. John D. Martin H. Spellman rendered two solos at the final absolution. Burial was in St. Michael's cemetery. The bearers were Edward Murray, James Murray, Charles Lowe and Michael McGinn. Mr. Caton was for many years a resident of Potter Hill.

Rev. Dr. John Neale, pastor of St. Michael's church, will leave Friday for Baltimore and participate in the religious celebration of the golden jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons, as the special guest of Rev. Dr. Fletcher, rector of the Baltimore cathedral. His mate, and who preached at the recent re-dedication of St. Michael's church. The lay or civic celebration in honor of the cardinal was held last June.

At the eighty-sixth anniversary gathering of the Rhode Island Baptist convention, held in Providence, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Calvary church, Westerly, was elected a member of the board of managers. Rev. George W. Riegler, D.D., of Lonsdale, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of Westerly, was also elected to the board and also a member of the concentration of effort, state apportionment, and denominational comity committees.

MYSTIC

Burnham-Morey Wedding—Stonington Lodge Adds to Membership—Surprise Party for Mrs. F. A. Coates.

The marriage of Miss Leona Morey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morey, and Joseph Burnham, took place Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church, Rev. John Fleming performing the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Clara Morey, a sister of the bride and the best man was William LaPoint of Jewett City. The flower girls were Misses Mary and Catherine Morey, sisters of the bride. After the church ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride on Greenmanville avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham left on the 3:27 express for New York, where they will spend a week, and on their return will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morey. The bride received many beautiful presents.

Four Initiated.

The regular meeting of Stonington lodge, No. 26, L. O. O. F., was held on Wednesday evening, when a class of four candidates received the first degree. Four applications were received and one initiated on. Stonington lodge is having a prosperous term. During the first of the term, Noble Grand Hiram W. Lathrop offered a prize to the one bringing in the most names this term, and many of the members are working for it. Degree Master Fred King has made a good showing on the degree team and the lodge members are working well together.

Recovering from Injuries.

John Traversa, who fell from a moving car the day the road was opened between Mystic and Old Mystic, breaking his collarbone, and receiving bruises on face and body, was able to walk to his place of business Wednesday.

TOURING CAR CRASHES INTO TELEPHONE POLE

Three Occupants Escape with Slight Injuries When Pole is Cut in Two.

Danielson, Conn., Oct. 11.—A light touring car being driven at high speed was practically reduced to junk early Wednesday evening, when it got beyond control of the driver and crashed into a telephone pole near the end of the new macadam on the Brooklyn road, Peter Young, owner of the car, Del Mitchell, both of whom are residents across the Rhode Island border near East Killingly, and Arthur Lacombe, the chauffeur, of Danielson, were the occupants. According to stories of the affair, the car was flashing along at about forty miles an hour, and in attempting to pass another car which was also heading towards Danielson, the accident occurred.

When the car struck, the telephone pole snapped off like a match. Young and Mitchell were both thrown from the car, but escaped serious injury. Young went out through the windshield and after recovering, amused himself by picking pieces of glass from his leg. Mitchell was scratched and bruised about the face and hands, Lacombe escaping with a shaking up. The party was returning from the fair at Stafford Springs.

Plainville.—On the charge of illegally setting snares for game birds, Dennis B. Hoadley of Forestville avenue was given a hearing before Judge Peck in the Bristol police court and after entering a plea of guilty was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $15.70.

FEET TIRED- SO TIRED?

TIZ MAKES SICK FEET WELL NO MATTER WHAT AILS THEM.

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore free. It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad-smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pain. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used.—A. F. Drentzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudation, which brings about soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet. You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Lather Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.
